Corresponding Secretary.

1907,

Dear Mr. Herb:—

Although it is Sunday night I have just finished six busness notes, and it does not seem right unless I have just a little chat with you.

Your "silent influence" must be a power, for we had a glorious meeting yesterday. It was next to impossible for me to get down Saturday a.m., but had all the time I needed to talk over Oylands at with Mr. Doob, before our meeting began; It seemed out of place for you not to be at your desk Friday nor Saturday I really missed you and accepted your letter only as the substitute. I did my best to carry out instructions, as to how to behave. but as I have no dignity perhaps I made a failure only in one thing. I sure did not let Mr. Commons carry out the Darby's suggestion in regard to having different places for the association to meet. Also, we now have 50¢ dues. in advance, and contribution box.

But I'm not thinking of Associations just now. have just reread your last three letters—and carefully noted every clause.
Although I have never made any special 100-112-377

Mention of it, you can or may never know how much I appreciate your guidance, both as to matters of the Association and my own affairs. I now see brighter hopes of carrying out the "row" of my life. Wish I could express my thoughts or feelings, but can't.
You, who have been kind to others (who had the power of expression) can imagine, possibly, what I fail to write.

Most sincerely yours

Will be down Wednesday, if possible

Lillian
